

THE JON PETZ EXPERIENCE

I'm proud of the local and global brands that I partner with to create sustained memories, impactful presentations along with personal and professional development. If you'd like to speak with any of the references, please let us now. We will be happy to introduce you.

"You hit the messaging for our sales kick-offs on the money. Incredible job of combining purposeful stories and illustrations combined with engagement and humor." Director of Marketing, Verizon Wireless, Sales Kickoff

Jon's customer service presentation was the most talked about session and one of the best reviewed classes we've ever offered over our two-day training. We set up a pre-event call to discuss our audience and the topics we'd like him to touch on; he did his research and delivered a very personalized presentation with lots of humor, a touch of magic and lots of applicable information. He was so easy to work with and I would absolutely bring him back for another conference!
Event Planner, Delta Vacations

"Jon is one of the most engaging speaker/emcee we have worked with over my many years of hosting corporate events. It was clear that Jon had invested significant time to understand his audience and our company, which made him so much more relevant. Our guests were thrilled with his style, substance, talent and humor -- he delighted us all and we can't wait to invite Jon back."
Vice Chairman, US Bank, Customer Service Incentive Trip

"You clearly exceeded our expectations. Everyone was locked on you – nobody was checking their mobile device, I mean NOBODY – you had their full attention, which is difficult to do at a firm like ours."
Deloitte and Touché, Partner Leadership Meeting

"What an AWESOME event! I am still flying high from it. You were SUCH a great fit for our people."

I have seen some great speakers over my years and I say this with all honesty, you are my favorite. You really brought something unique to our event that will last with me forever and I am sure everyone else. You will be remembered in my team meetings for years to come. We had a team meeting the very next day (not even 24 hours later) and when it was my turn to speak I was already referencing you and 1 of your stories. You are awesome!

Senior Vice President, Treasury Management

Amazing. He spoke to us, not at us. I found his words very encouraging and inspirational. The thing that I liked the most was that he was not approaching things from only a business or a management perspective. He's entire focus was on us as individual human beings and the way that we can contribute to create a new environment / culture. He WILL be back with our leadership team again!

President, AMResorts, GM's Leadership Meeting

While words cannot do justice to Mr. Petz's heartfelt and engaging performances, the overwhelming response from our employees do. Jon is sincere, motivational and educational all while being exceedingly entertaining and pertinent to our company values and goals.

Most importantly, our employees—our most important asset, feel valued because we included such a special addition to their keynote meetings. Employees at all levels in all departments keep asking when Jon will be back. It will certainly be soon.
